David Piltz of The Learning Key, Inc. Leads Live Audio Conference “ Retaining Employees and Making Training Stick”

Washington Crossing, P.A. - David Piltz, Managing Partner of The Learning Key, Inc. will lead a live audio conference on Thursday May 14th from 11:30 am to 12:30 pm on the topic, Retaining Employees and Making Training Stick. “Ensuring that training “sticks”, can be accomplished by designing interactive experiences to engage employees, resulting in behavioral change and increased productivity,” says Piltz.

Those who should attend are human resource managers, training managers, R&D project leaders, senior management, line managers and leaders of interdisciplinary teams, lab directors interested in developing staff, trainers, facilitators, coaches and organizational development professionals.

David has designed and delivered interactive training programs for more than 14 years. He has authored articles on the topics of creating interactive training and how to make training “stick”, and developed and designed over 75 modules on communication, management and supervision, facilitation and delegation.
