David Piltz, Training Specialist gives Keynote at ISA Conference
"Apply the Science of Learning to Decrease Turnover, Reduce Training Expense, and Increase Retention"

Washington Crossing, P.A. - David Piltz, Managing Partner of The Learning Key, Inc. will be a Keynote Speaker at the 9th ISA Fugitive Emissions LDAR Training & Symposium Conference being held in Austin Texas on May 21st , 2009 from 10:45 am to 11:15 pm on the topic, "Apply the Science of Learning to Decrease Turnover, Reduce Training Expense, and Increase Retention".

"Using experiential learning helps to create positive experiences for employees. Results can lead to a better understanding of concepts or processes, greater retention of information, and increased skills. Employees can be more motivated and productive, increasing the bottom line for your organization" says Piltz.

The LDAR Training and Symposium will present speakers from organizations such as the EPA to suppliers and end users. You will hear innovative approaches on ways to improve LDAR programs and ways to save your company money.
