The Learning Key, Inc. and Otto Kroeger Associates Offer a Philadelphia Area Myers-Briggs® Type Workshop

“Building Teams with Type”

Washington Crossing, P.A. - The Learning Key, Inc. in partnership with Otto Kroeger Associates is offering a two-day workshop, “Building Teams with Type”, on September 30th and October 1st at the corporate headquarters of The Learning Key, Inc. in Washington Crossing, PA. This hands-on workshop offers CE units toward Master Practitioner designation and experientially explores Type’s complexities to apply the theory with teams and organizations. “Psychological type is an intricate system that produces powerful insights into the dynamics of individuals, groups, and organizations”, says Hile Rutledge of Otto Kroeger Associates.

The workshop assists practitioners in designing and applying group learning and teambuilding programs tailored to individual needs.

The Learning Key, Inc. has been transforming learning into action for technology-based organizations for over 18 years.
